Participating Requirements

- Please bring 4,000 pieces of wrapped candy to hand out to visitors. Estimate is based on average attendance. No bakery or fresh fruit is allowed.
- Vendors are encouraged to decorate their station and dress in Halloween attire. Props or decorations with blood or guts are not permitted.
- Vendors are responsible for bringing their own tent table and chairs. You may use signs and banners to promote your business / organization.
- No drawings or raffles will be allowed on the Trail. It causes heavy congestion.
- No political signage, flyers, stickers or anything controversial. This is a family friendly event.
- No pets are allowed on the trail or at your vendor station.
- Vendors are allowed to park at City Hall during setup and event.

What's Next:

- Vendors will be notified if their application is accepted.
- Mid-October a letter and map will be sent to participating vendors with instructions for the day and their placement along the trail.

Applications accepted until October 18th.

Questions and completed application can be sent to rosemounthauntedtrail@gmail.com.

Rosemount Haunted Trail is a non-profit organization run by volunteers. They work closely with the City of Rosemount to bring this event to our community each year.
